Set within the ever popular Riverside Quarter development, this well presented apartment is centred around an impressive dual aspect reception, kitchen and dining space, creating a naturally bright and open atmosphere throughout the day. Large windows on two elevations draw in excellent natural light and enhance the sense of space. A particular highlight of the apartment is the rare benefit of two separate balconies. The kitchen is neatly integrated with modern cabinetry and practical storage, complementing the clean contemporary feel of the apartment. The bedrooms are well proportioned and peacefully positioned, served by modern bathrooms finished in a simple understated style.
