A spacious four bedroom apartment with high ceilings, balcony and patio, on the borders of Holland Park and Kensington

Extending to almost 2,000 sq ft and finished to an exceptional standard, this impressive four bedroom apartment combines generous proportions and high ceilings with beautifully designed living space, in one of west London's most sought after locations.

The ground floor centres on a striking open plan kitchen, dining and reception room, where high ceilings and floor to ceiling windows on two sides create a wonderful sense of light and space. Doors lead out onto a private balcony, and a utility room and guest cloakroom complete the floor.

On the lower ground floor are four double bedrooms, each with an en suite. The principal bedroom is impressively spacious, a rare find in a London apartment, and several of the bedrooms open straight onto a private patio. Air conditioning and underfloor heating run throughout, and residents benefit from a concierge service and underground parking.

Russell Gardens sits on the borders of Holland Park and Kensington, moments from Holland Park's woodland walks and Kyoto Garden. Kensington High Street, Holland Park Avenue and Westfield London are all close by, and Kensington (Olympia), Holland Park and Shepherd's Bush stations provide excellent connections across London.
