About the property

This delightful studio flat offers bright open-plan living, a modern fitted kitchen, and a separate bathroom, all set within a characterful Victorian conversion on one of Hove's most desirable streets. Positioned just moments from the seafront, the property sits in a quiet residential location while still being within easy reach of Hove and Aldrington stations, frequent bus routes, and the bustling amenities of Church Road including cafés, shops, and restaurants. With Council Tax Band A and the option for permit parking, this low-maintenance home provides comfortable modern living in a highly convenient and picturesque setting. Ideal for a professional seeking a peaceful base by the coast.
