This magnificent and bespoke residence is discreetly positioned along a private drive, offering an exceptional level of privacy whilst being just a short walk from the North Bay.

Individually designed and crafted to an exacting standard, the home presents an impressive blend of character, scale and architectural interest, set within beautifully established grounds with a woodland backdrop. The property showcases striking features throughout, including exposed timbers, vaulted ceilings and a wealth of versatile living space extending to over 4,000 sq ft. The property is timber framed.

The accommodation is both extensive and adaptable. A stunning vaulted entrance hall with landing provides a grand first impression, leading through to a beautifully appointed drawing room with an impressive fireplace. Further reception space includes a formal dining area, an additional lounge and a separate sitting room, ideal for modern family living and entertaining.

The kitchen is well-proportioned and full of character, complemented by a large rear hall, utility room, office and cloakroom, all thoughtfully arranged to enhance practicality without compromising on style.

To the first floor, the property offers four generous double bedrooms, each enjoying its own charm and outlook. The principal suite is particularly impressive, featuring a vaulted bedroom area and en-suite facilities. A spacious family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms, all of which benefit from the home's distinctive architectural features.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The grounds are a true highlight, offering a mixture of lawned gardens, woodland walks and a variety of outbuildings including a summer house and potting shed. Two substantial garages provide excellent storage and versatility.
