A particularly spacious four bedroom bungalow, set in a quiet location just moments from Kenley rail station, boasting a 1732 sq ft floorplan and a large rear garden.

Beautifully finished and modernised throughout, this welcoming home features a generous reception with ample space for a dining area and a stylish kitchen with sliding doors to the patio and garden behind. The kitchen, dining room and en-suite also feature underfloor heating. A particular highlight is the substantial rear garden, perfect for families and ideal for entertaining guests.

To the front, the driveway parking adds valuable everyday convenience, with space for two vehicles away from the road. Kenley offers an appealing blend of suburban living, green surroundings and excellent accessibility.

There is a great selection of schools within the wider area, including well-regarded primary and secondary options, making the location particularly attractive to families. For commuters, Kenley station is conveniently accessible and provides services towards quick access to central London, including London Bridge and London Victoria.

The surrounding road network provides excellent connections to central London and the M25. With its welcoming and spacious accommodation, impressive garden, driveway parking and convenient position for schools and transport, this attractive home offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking lateral space, privacy and a well-connected, peaceful location.
