The internal accommodation briefly comprises a spacious, newly fitted kitchen/diner. This generously sized space offers plenty of room for both cooking and dining, featuring a stainless steel sink, integrated fridge/freezer, and space for many appliances. The kitchen also benefits from a practical pantry cupboard, providing valuable additional storage.

A central hallway connects the main living areas and offers access to three well-proportioned double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe. The home is further served by a family bathroom, which includes a bath, separate shower, tiled walls, a pedestal sink, a storage cupboard, and a heated towel rail.

To the rear of the property, you'll find two comfortable reception rooms. The first is warmed by a wood-burning stove and features a window overlooking the conservatory. The second reception room, with a gas fire, opens directly into a substantial conservatory that spans the full width of the property. This versatile garden room provides an ideal space for year-round use.

Externally, Rosemount is set on an impressive plot with expansive gardens and ample off-street parking. A detached garage with an electricity supply adds to the property's practicality. A standout feature of the grounds is a clearly defined garden plot, offering potential for future development, subject to the necessary permissions without compromising the property's existing outlook. The property also benefits from solar panels.
