Surrounded by rolling hills, open fields and scenic paddocks, the village enjoys a peaceful rural atmosphere whilst retaining a welcoming community feel. Rich in history, Kimpton is home to a beautiful 12th-century church, a traditional village pub dating back to the 1700s and a well-regarded local primary school. The surrounding countryside provides numerous walking, cycling and bridleway routes, making it an ideal setting for those who enjoy the outdoors and appreciate a rural way of life.

Despite its tranquil setting, Kimpton is conveniently located for access to the larger nearby towns of Andover, Winchester and Salisbury, whilst allowing residents to enjoy the peace and quiet of village life. The village also benefits from a strong community spirit, with a variety of local events and activities bringing residents together throughout the year.
