A stylish and surprisingly spacious 4 bedroom detached property in a pretty village just 1 mile off the A19, 4 miles from Easingwold and 8 miles from York. Features include luxury en-suite and bathrooms, large sitting room and a stunning 416 sq ft dining kitchen and living area plus a double width drive and an integral single garage making this an exceptional family home.

A practical entrance lobby with space for coats, boots and shoes welcomes you into this fabulous family home which was extended, remodelled and significantly upgraded throughout by the current owners in 2022 and a spacious sitting room with invaluable built-in storage and a contemporary wood-burning stove sets the tone for the style and quality that follows.

An inner hallway with staircase and cloakroom/WC leads through to the stunning 21'2" (6.45m) long open-plan dining kitchen and living room. This impressive space features underfloor heating, a high vaulted ceiling and 13'0" (3.96m) wide sliding doors opening onto an elevated paved seating terrace.

The high specification 2022 kitchen features quartz worktops, floor-to-ceiling storage cupboards and an expansive quartz topped central island and breakfast bar that also incorporates a period style twin sink and an integrated dishwasher. The kitchen also includes a full height fridge and separate freezer, space for a range cooker and a useful utility room leading off.

The generous first floor landing provides access to the
