

27 Belmont Street, Worcester, WR3 8NN
Guide Price £240,000

Philip Laney & Jolly present this charming Victorian terrace house located at 27 Belmont Street in the heart of Worcester. This delightful property is deceptively spacious and offers two double bedrooms to the first floor ideal for families or professionals seeking generous living accommodation. The attic is a particularly impressive feature, being spacious and enhanced by dormer windows to both the front and rear, creating a bright and versatile area.

Upon entering the property you are welcomed by character features typical of the Victorian era, including high ceilings and large windows replaced in 2018 that allow natural light to flow throughout. The inviting living area provides a warm and comfortable setting for relaxing or entertaining. The dining room benefits from an attractive fireplace which acts as a focal point and adds to the period charm.

The kitchen is well arranged and practical for everyday use, and beneath the stairs there is a useful understairs larder cupboard with access to the cellar, which is currently used as a hobby room and offers excellent additional storage or potential workspace. The property also features a contemporary fitted shower room finished to a modern standard.

To the rear is a much loved South westerly facing garden which enjoys a right of way to the neighbouring property. The garden has been thoughtfully arranged with tiered seating areas, a lawn section with a shed and a polyhouse, creating an inviting outdoor space ideal for relaxing, gardening or entertaining.

The location is highly convenient, with local amenities, schools and parks close by, while Worcester City centre is within easy reach and offers a wide range of shops, restaurants and cultural attractions.

This Victorian terrace presents an excellent opportunity to enjoy period character combined with modern comfort in a sought after
