A SPACIOUS HOME DESIGNED FOR FAMILY LIFE!

Situated within the ever-popular suburb of Sprowston, this spacious detached chalet style home offers excellent family-sized accommodation, exciting future potential and the benefit of significant improvement works already completed by the current owners.

The property would now benefit from some cosmetic updating, however many of the expensive and often unseen upgrades have already been undertaken, creating an excellent opportunity for buyers to personalise and add value over time.

The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hall leading into a generous living room and a spacious kitchen/breakfast room. Unusually for a property of this style, the ground floor also offers two double bedrooms alongside a family bathroom, providing excellent flexibility for multi-generational living, home working or growing families.

Upstairs, there are two further double bedrooms, continuing the property's impressive sense of space and versatility.
