SELLER INSIGHT

“ We have loved living at 109a Fishbourne Lane for the wonderful sense of peace and privacy it offers, while still being exceptionally close to the seafront and ferry links to the mainland. The house is spacious and filled with natural light, and its unique location right next to the Fishbourne ferry terminal has made travelling to the mainland incredibly easy, while the proximity to Quarr Abbey and its beautiful surroundings has provided a real sense of nature on our doorstep.

The orangery and garden room have been our favourite spaces to relax and enjoy views of the garden throughout the seasons. The gardens have been a true labour of love, carefully designed to create a tranquil and secluded retreat with several seating areas to enjoy sunny days and evenings with friends and family. This has been a very special home for us, and we hope the next owners will enjoy it as much as we have”.

STEP INSIDE

109a Fishbourne Lane

Set within a private driveway just off Fishbourne Lane, this impressive and beautifully proportioned home enjoys an enviable position only a stone's throw from Fishbourne seafront and the car ferry terminal to Portsmouth. Offering generous accommodation, elegant living spaces, and exquisitely landscaped gardens, the property combines comfort, privacy, and convenience in a highly desirable coastal setting.

A welcoming and spacious entrance hall sets the tone for the home, immediately conveying a sense of light and scale. Double doors open into the main sitting room, a warm and inviting space featuring an open fireplace and glazed double doors that flow seamlessly into the formal dining room. The dining room is enhanced by attractive hardwood flooring and provides an ideal setting for entertaining or family gatherings. From here, doors lead into a stunning orangery, flooded with natural light from its glazed lantern roof with inset spotlighting. Full-height windows frame tranquil views across the pond and gardens, while doors open onto a sunken patio, creating a perfect connection between indoor and outdoor living.

The kitchen sits adjacent to the dining room and is fitted with classic oak wall and base units, complementary tiling, and neutral work surfaces. It includes a fitted gas oven, electric hob, inset sink and drainer, and space for both a dishwasher and fridge freezer. A generously sized utility room continues the practical theme, offering matching cabinetry, an inset sink, and space for a washing machine. From here, access leads to a bright and versatile garden room with views over the rear garden, as well as internal access to the double garage. Completing the ground floor is a spacious cloakroom.

The first floor is accessed via a central staircase, which divides to serve the home's well-proportioned bedrooms. Bedrooms one and two both benefit from private en-suite facilities, while three further bedrooms are served by a large family bathroom. The layout offers flexibility for family living, guests, or home working.

The gardens are truly a standout feature, having been lovingly cultivated to create a peaceful and private retreat. A large pond sits alongside the orangery, while winding pathways lead through mature tropical-style planting to several secluded seating areas, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. To the front, the property offers ample off-road parking within the private driveway, in addition to the double garage.

Offered to the market chain free, this exceptional home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious and characterful property in a highly sought-after coastal location, combining lifestyle, comfort, and convenience in equal measure.
