SITUATION

Caversham is situated just north of the River Thames, offering a wide range of shops, bars and restaurants, together with excellent schooling. Reading Station servicing London (Paddington 25 minutes) is within half a mile of Caversham Bridge and has been further complemented with the arrival of Crossrail. Emmer Green & Caversham Heights border the South Oxfordshire countryside, with a choice of golf courses and the additional Mapledurham Gym & Rivermead Sports Complex on Caversham borders

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

This exceptional extended detached family home offers beautifully presented five-bedroom accommodation arranged over three floors. A thoughtfully designed extension has created a stunning, spacious kitchen/breakfast room with adjoining utility and boot room, perfectly complementing the elegant living and dining rooms, as well as a separate study.

The former garage has been partially converted to provide a superb cinema room/home office, adding versatility to the living space. The gardens have been exquisitely landscaped by award-winning designer Adam Vetere, featuring a raised decking platform, central pergola, specimen shrubs, and an automatic irrigation system. The property is surrounded by natural woodland and enjoys panoramic views across Hemdean Valley, with secure escarpment land extending to the lower grounds.

Internally, the home has been comprehensively renovated to a high standard. The impressive dual-aspect living and dining room enjoys elevated views and a wonderful sense of privacy. The first floor hosts four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a guest bedroom with en-suite, while the elegant top-floor principal suite benefits from its own en-suite bathroom and private sauna.

Uniquely positioned on particularly secluded land enveloped by light woodland, the property offers tranquility and breathtaking valley views, yet remains conveniently located close to shops, schools, and everyday amenities. Reading railway station is within three miles, providing excellent transport links
