Guide Price £325,000

An immaculately presented detached bungalow situated in the popular village of Ingham, offering a wonderful opportunity to acquire a stylish and beautifully maintained home. Constructed of traditional brick beneath a tiled roof, the property provides comfortable and thoughtfully designed accommodation, perfectly suited to discerning buyers including retirees, downsizers or those seeking the appeal of village life.

The property welcomes you through a spacious entrance hall featuring laminate flooring and a useful built-in storage cupboard, with doors leading to the principal rooms. The dual-aspect sitting room is bright and inviting, enhanced by a contemporary feature wall and abundance of natural light, creating a cosy yet elegant space perfect for both everyday living and entertaining.

At the heart of the home is the modern kitchen/dining room, fitted with a stylish range of wall and base units offering generous preparation surfaces. The kitchen includes an integrated oven, hob and extractor hood along with space for additional appliances. The dining area comfortably accommodates a table, making it ideal for both family meals and hosting guests. Double doors open into a versatile lean-to conservatory, providing an additional indoor space that can be enjoyed as extra storage or simply a peaceful spot to relax whilst overlooking the garden.

The bungalow offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms, each benefiting from triple-glazed windows and built-in wardrobes, providing both comfort and practicality. The contemporary shower room is beautifully appointed with a walk-in shower, low-level WC, and a vanity wash basin set upon an attractive oak wash stand which completes the accommodation.

This attractive and thoughtfully improved bungalow combines comfortable living with a village location and convenient access to local amenities, making it a wonderful place to call home. The property is beautifully presented throughout and ready to move straight into.

Outside

Externally, the property occupies a generous wrap-around garden which provides both privacy and practicality. It feels like there are distinct areas offering a flexible outdoor space with the rear being predominately laid to lawn, the garden has been beautifully landscaped to feature areas of hardstanding ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining. Mature shrubs and established borders add character and colour throughout the seasons while encouraging visiting wildlife, butterflies and birds. A vegetable patch and two garden sheds provide further practicality and outdoor storage perfect for storing items out of sight.

A shared driveway leads to a private hardstanding area providing off-road parking for two vehicles.

Location

The property is only a stones' throw of the village centre whilst having access to countryside walks. Ingham is a popular village with local facilities including a local public house. The village is conveniently situated approximately three miles to the North of the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds. There is also excellent access to the main road networks and the nearby Culford private school.

Directions
