Located within a stone's throw of the New Forest National Park, comes this delightful detached bungalow, recently refurbished by the current owners. Accommodation comprises an open-plan living space (kitchen, dining room and lounge) and two double bedrooms. The master bedroom has an ensuite shower, and there is a second full bathroom. A sunny conservatory leads off the lounge and a utility room affords space for appliances, with a door leading outside. The garage, currently used as a small workshop, has electricity. Further benefits include off-street parking for two cars, double glazing, gas central heating and a south facing, attractive, established, rear garden.
