Location

Highnam is a village and civil parish on the outskirts of the city of Gloucester. It is 3 miles northwest of the city on the A40, on its way to Ross, west of Alney Island and Over Bridge. The parish includes the villages of Lassington and Over. With a CofE primary school, village hall, day nursery providing childcare from 3 months to 5 years, a village shop and a doctors surgery. Highnam also has an eighteen hole golf course and a large business park just outside the main village. Highnam Woods to the west of the village are managed by the RSPB as a nature reserve, and Lassington Woods are to the east of the village. There is a traffic-free cycle path which provides cyclists and pedestrians with easy access to Over Farm Market and the Toby Carvery and onwards across Alney Island to Gloucester Quays. There is a strong community in the village with numerous activities available including fitness classes, dancing, an amateur dramatics group, carpet bowls, quiz nights, a regular community cafe, a very popular football club and a village Heritage group (Highnam Heritage).
