Guide Price - £150,000 Freehold

- Characterful two bedroom cottage
- Long rear garden
- Rural village location
- Renovation required
- Further detached stone outbuilding

A characterful two bedroom end of terrace cottage requiring renovation, benefitting from long rear lawned garden, stone outbuilding and enclosed front garden. The accommodation provides 19ft long sitting room, kitchen/diner, large pantry, two first floor bedrooms and family bathroom.

The end of terrace cottage stands proudly in the square at Praze-an-Beeble and has exposed cut granite façade beneath a pitch tiled roof with red clay ridge tiles and brick chimney stack. Front windows and the front door are uPVC double glazed.

An enclosed area of lawn lies to the front with a long area of lawn lying to the rear and a river runs to the north of the property. An attached stone outbuilding is situated to the rear of the property with attached disused WC. The stone outbuilding included in the sale is not currently registered title and the eastern boundary for the long rear garden is currently showing as incorrect on Land Registry and this would need rectification.
