We are delighted to offer this brand new end of terrace home which has accommodation thoughtfully designed and finished to a good specification by well respected local builders. Set right in the centre of the Island's principal town in an historic conservation area; the terrace of just three properties have an appealing design in keeping with the commercial history of the area. Clean red brickwork shows off the handsome black wood features which complement the chic black UPVC double glazed windows. The thermally efficient property is warmed by gas central heating with an underfloor system on the ground floor. The surprisingly spacious accommodation includes a well proportioned sitting room to the front and separate dining room connecting to a very smartly fitted kitchen at the rear. The kitchen is fitted with a handsome range of glossy units with fitted hob, oven and dishwasher. A handy cloakroom also sits on this level. There are two bright double bedrooms upstairs which are serviced by a freshly designed bathroom. To the rear of the home lies an area of enclosed paved garden with an alcove area that would be perfect for a small pergola or awning. Gated rear access to a secure communal side gate on to Scarrots Lane. Chapel Street car park is found opposite the house with a resident's permit currently costing just £238.80pa. Freehold. Council Tax Band - B. EPC - TBC.
