Conveniently situated for access to the village centre and many of Rustington's principal amenities is this particularly bright and very well-appointed first floor flat.

In brief, the spacious accommodation comprises; two double bedrooms, both of which offer recessed storage; a dual aspect living room, which gives access to a WEST FACING BALCONY; stylish refitted kitchen, boasting a pleasant aspect across Woodlands Avenue; and a contemporary bathroom/WC.

Additional attributes include; modern electric heating; double glazing; a GARAGE situated in an adjacent compound; access to well-maintained communal gardens; and a share in the freehold.

Donnington Place forms part of the highly regarded Church Farm Gardens development, which is situated in the heart of Rustington village and enables easy access to its comprehensive shopping parade. Two GP surgeries, the library and St Peter & St Paul's church are all located within an approximate 0.75-mile radius, whilst Rustington's picturesque seafront/greensward can be found in only 1-mile.
