INTRODUCTION

If you are searching for something a little different in a delightful village setting, this remarkable former chapel could be just the one for you.

Converted in 2015, the property has been transformed into a stunning and highly individual home, awash with character and architectural interest, with spacious accommodation extending to approaching 2,000 sq ft. It is also an excellent choice for those seeking ease of maintenance, with no garden to look after and beautiful surrounding countryside quite literally on the doorstep.

Occupying a central position within the highly desirable village of Lockington, approximately 7 miles from Beverley and 8 miles from Driffeld, the property immediately impresses with the scale and proportions of its principal rooms. Particularly striking is the fabulous living kitchen, where a dramatic double-height ceiling and bespoke arched window allow natural light to flood in from the south. An attractive fitted kitchen with substantial central island is complemented by a comfortable living area with cosy log burner. The accommodation is depicted on the attached floorplan and briefly comprises an entrance lobby with grand timber entrance door, a superb lounge/dining room with study area beyond, the impressive living kitchen, a well-fitted utility room, separate study and downstairs W.C.

Upstairs, a galleried landing provides access to three bedrooms. The particularly spacious principal bedroom features fitted wardrobes and a stylish en-suite bath/shower room, while the remaining two bedrooms are served by a "Jack and Jill" shower room.

A truly distinctive village home combining the character and proportions of its former chapel origins with the comfort and practicality of modern-day living.
