The property

An extended and refurbished period home set within this unspoilt Cotswold village, neighbouring 'Minch' Common. Extended in recent years and improved by the current owners, 1 Elmcroft has been tastefully upgraded for modern living whilst remaining sympathetic to its origins, with bespoke timber windows, and a central heating system and boiler installed in 2021.

The kitchen, also with underfloor heating and flagstone floor, features freestanding units, a central island, Lacanche stove, space for a fridge/freezer and concealed water softener. A stable door leads to the garden room.

The neighbouring sitting room is a cosy space with a period fireplace and woodburner. Both kitchen and sitting room open to the part Cotswold stone, part glazed garden room with solid roof, and oak flooring. This versatile space offers formal dining and living areas, with doors to the south-facing garden and built-in cupboards concealing utility appliances.

Two first-floor bedrooms enjoy garden and wooded valley views and are served by a stylish bathroom with corner shower, bath, vanity unit, copper heated towel rail and electric underfloor heating.
