1A Tradescant Road, London, SW8 1XD

Asking price £850,000

Offered for sale at £850,000, this spacious three-bedroom, two-bathroom split-level ground-floor flat is situated in Lambeth, within a prime central London location.

The property offers generous and characterful accommodation, including a bright reception room and an open-plan kitchen and living area. Having recently undergone partial refurbishment, it now requires some light finishing touches, providing an excellent opportunity for the incoming owner to personalise the property to their own taste.

Further benefits include private parking, a share of the freehold and no onward chain. Early viewing is highly recommended.
