Charming one bedroom flat on the second floor of a seafront apartment building. From the moment you step into the lobby and see the lift waiting to whisk you up, you know you're in for something special.

The sitting room is a cosy retreat, complete with a feature bay window that floods the space with natural light. But wait, it gets even better - step out onto your very own balcony and soak in the panoramic sea views that stretch out before you. It's the perfect spot for morning coffees or watching the sunset with a glass of wine in hand.

The contemporary kitchen is a dream for any aspiring chef, with sleek fittings and everything you need to whip up a delicious meal. And when it's time to wind down, the generous double bedroom offers a peaceful sanctuary to rest your head, with access to the balcony and fully fitted wardrobes. The modern shower room has a WC and bidet.

But that's not all - this gem of a property also comes with allocated parking, ensuring you always have a spot waiting for you.
