Newchurch Road, Stacksteads, Bacup, Rossendale is a main road, end terrace commercial property with a 2x bedroom apartment over. Ideally situated in a high street position and with potential to revert to residential (STP), the property is well-positioned close to a range of local amenities and transport links too. As such, the premises represent an ideal opportunity for new or existing businesses, with the option for a separate residential income from the apartment above adding to its appeal.

Currently benefiting from Small Business Rate Relief, the premises are large enough for a variety of uses, yet ought to be easily managed and have relatively low overheads. The current owners of the established butchers / deli business in situ are bringing the property to the market due to retirement.

Available immediately, this is an attractive mixed use commercial / residential prospect which is AVAILABLE NOW & FOR SALE WITH NO CHAIN DELAY.
