

The current owner says:

The property is in a fantastic location for the local shops, parks, and transport links.

A bright and modern one-bedroom first-floor apartment set within a small, well-maintained purpose-built development in the heart of Acton.

The property comprises a spacious open-plan kitchen and reception room, a generous double bedroom and a contemporary shower room. The apartment benefits from an abundance of natural light throughout and would make an ideal purchase for first-time buyers seeking a well-connected London home.

Additional benefits include secure bicycle storage and access to an incredibly spacious communal roof terrace, perfect for relaxing or entertaining while enjoying far-reaching views.

Alexandra House enjoys excellent transport links across London, with Acton Town, South Acton and Acton Main Line stations all within a short walking distance, providing convenient access via the Piccadilly Line, Overground and Elizabeth Line. The M4 and M40 motorway routes are also easily accessible.

The property is also ideally positioned close to the vibrant amenities of Churchfield Road and Chiswick High Road, both offering a wide array of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday conveniences.
