This beautifully renovated period terraced cottage has been upgraded throughout to an exceptional standard, featuring new electrics, plumbing, a modern fitted kitchen and bathroom, double-glazed windows and doors.

Ideally located in a highly sought-after position just behind The Spires Shopping Centre, the property is only a short two-minute walk from the High Street, offering a wide range of shops, leisure facilities, cafes, restaurants and excellent transport links, including the Northern Line from High Barnet Underground.

This charming home provides bright and well-proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors, offering plenty of scope as a family residence. The property has been comprehensively renovated; new boiler, updated walls, floors and offers bright & welcoming space, comprising reception room, separate dining room, and a newly fitted kitchen leading directly onto a private, south-west facing 60ft garden, downstairs guest cloakroom with WC, two double bedrooms and a large family bathroom.

The property benefits further from rear access to the garden and is ideally positioned within the highly desirable catchment area for Foulds and Christchurch School, making it a perfect choice for families.
