Welcome to Wisteria Drive, Wymondham, NR18. Turning sunshine into savings, this home comes complete with recently installed solar panels (fitted on both sides of the roof) and a battery. Making smarter decisions is easy with an app that tracks storage, usage, and feed-in returns. Insurance-backed guarantee dated to January 2035.

Boasting a versatile five-bedroom, three-bathroom layout, this detached family home is arranged across three generous floors, ideal for those looking to upsize for family and spatial needs. The ground floor centres around a recently installed Wickes shaker-style kitchen with Bosch appliances, complemented by a bright sun room serving as a permanent dining space, and a generous L-shaped living room that easily flexes for family life, entertaining and relaxing.

Upstairs, the first floor offers three bedrooms, including the principal bedroom with an ensuite shower room and built-in wardrobe, plus the family bathroom with a shower over the bath. The top floor adds two further dual-aspect, generous bedrooms, sharing a shower room off the landing, offering independence from the rest of the household - perfect for older children, guests, or creating a dedicated work-from-home setup.

Positioned along a quiet residential road, this home is uniquely set back, with a sizeable brickweave driveway for parking up to five cars, along with a single garage for storage, bikes, buggies and gym gear. The westerly-facing rear garden is a real highlight, boasting a large patio to enjoy afternoon and evening sun and a lovely outlook across neighbouring woodland and parkland.

Wymondham's a brilliant base for family life: well-regarded schools, loads of green space, leisure centre, tennis and rugby clubs, plus a great mix of local shops and eateries – alongside a choice of supermarkets including Waitrose. The train station provides reliable connections to Norwich, Cambridge, London and Stansted, while road links into Norwich and beyond make for easy commuting and days out.

This home is a happy place to grow and has been thoughtfully used to make everyday life feel easy, sociable and spacious. With five bedrooms across three floors, great parking and a garden outlook that's hard to beat, it's ready for its next family to settle in and flourish. Book your viewing today.
