Palace Court, W2

This elegant first-floor, two-bedroom apartment in a charming period building features oak herringbone flooring, contemporary marble bathrooms, and a bespoke kitchen with integrated appliances. With comfort cooling throughout and a small south-facing balcony, it offers both style and convenience, including elevator access for easy living in a prime location.

The rooms are spacious and light, with the living areas designed for an environment ideal for relaxing and dining. The small details are what makes the apartment so very special; from the exquisite architraves to the large doors and wooden flooring throughout, no compromises have been made.

Palace Court is a quiet, tree-lined residential road of classic redbrick buildings in one of London's most desirable areas, within walking distance to Hyde Park. The area offers excellent transport links via Queensway and Notting Hill Gate stations, with nearby high-end dining, boutiques, and cultural attractions along Westbourne Grove.
