PROPERTY OVERVIEW

An exceptional double-fronted residence of considerable presence, offering refined and flexible accommodation ideally suited to contemporary multi-generational living, presented to the market in the highly regarded historic village of Cawood.

This distinguished family home combines generous proportions with carefully considered specification throughout. The lounge enjoys a dual outlook, with a window to the front elevation and elegant patio doors opening onto the beautifully maintained rear garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. The kitchen has been appointed to a high standard, featuring integrated Neff appliances, sleek quartz work surfaces and Quooker boiling-water tap and luxury LVT flooring. It flows naturally into a practical utility area with side access, while further double doors lead into a light-filled dining room. This dual-aspect space benefits from windows to both the rear and side elevations, together with doors opening directly onto the garden — an ideal setting for formal entertaining or relaxed family gatherings.

A notable and highly versatile feature is the ground-floor Bedroom/Reading Room offering outstanding potential for multi-generational living, a private guest suite, or a sophisticated home office.

On the first floor, five further bedrooms provide excellent accommodation. The Master Bedroom is particularly impressive, enjoying natural light from two aspects and benefiting from a private en-suite shower room. A second bedroom is also served by its own en-suite and fitted wardrobes, while the remaining rooms complete a generous and adaptable sleeping arrangement suited to a growing family or frequent guests.

Externally, the property is fully enclosed predominantly by brick walling and features carefully tended lawns interspersed with mature shrubs. Practical amenities include off-street parking for four vehicles, an electric vehicle charging point, and a double garage with electric doors, ensuring both convenience and secure storage. Cawood is one of North Yorkshire's most characterful riverside villages, set on the banks of the River Ouse approximately five miles North-West of Selby and ten miles South of the historic city of York. Once described as "the Windsor of the North". The surviving gatehouse of Cawood Castle and the Grade I listed All Saints' Church remain striking reminders of its distinguished past.

Today the village retains a strong sense of community and rural charm, with a well-regarded Church of England primary school, welcoming public houses, a village hall, playing fields and the attractive Castle Garth open space, together with delightful riverside walks. Everyday amenities are readily available in nearby Selby, while excellent road connections provide swift access to York, Leeds and the wider motorway network. Selby railway station offers regular services to major centres.

This substantial and thoughtfully configured home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a high-calibre family residence in one of the area's most desirable village locations — combining elegant living, practical versatility and a lifestyle of genuine distinction.
