Hadleigh

41 George Street, Hadleigh, Ipswich, Suffolk, IP7 5BD

This charming Grade II listed period cottage occupies a highly accessible and central position within the sought-after market town of Hadleigh. Beautifully presented throughout, the property offers characterful accommodation enriched by a wealth of original period features, including exposed timbers and studwork, red brick fireplaces, and attractive oak flooring.

The sitting room provides a particularly inviting space, centred around a striking brick fireplace with wood-burning stove, with an adjoining area that is ideal for dedicated dining.

A well appointed and layout out modern kitchen creates a practical yet characterful flow to the ground floor and includes integral appliances including four ring hob, electric double oven, Belfast sink and a quartz worksurface. Additional ground floor accommodation includes a rear hall with stable door, cloakroom, and a stylishly finished shower room.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with two well-proportioned bedrooms, both enjoying charming character features such as exposed timbers and oak flooring. The principal bedroom benefits from generous ceiling heights and built-in storage, while the second bedroom enjoys pleasant views over the rear gardens.

Externally, the property is complemented by a delightful porcelain terrace ideal for entertaining, a koi pond, and beautifully maintained gardens featuring mature planting and a timber-framed, fully insulated summer house with power connected—offering excellent versatility for use as a home office, studio, or leisure space.

This property should be viewed to fully appreciate its character and charm.
