Sellack is a tranquil village in Herefordshire, UK with historic cottages and period architecture nestled along the River Wye. The village benefits from amenities such as a local church, village hall and The Loughpool Inn.

Ross-on-Wye, a small market town situated on a picturesque bend of the River Wye, is 5 miles away and is often referred to as "The Gateway to the Wye Valley".

Ross-on-Wye is renowned for its stunning natural surroundings and panoramic views. It is a popular destination for nature lovers, hikers, and outdoor enthusiasts who come to explore the Wye Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The town itself features a charming mix of historical buildings and Georgian architecture. The 17th-century Market House is a notable landmark in Ross-on-Wye and serves as a focal point for local markets and events. The town centre offers a range of independent shops, cafes, restaurants, and traditional pubs.

Ross-on-Wye has a rich history dating back to medieval times, and visitors can explore the town's heritage through its historic buildings and landmarks. The 13th-century St. Mary's Church and the ruins of Wilton Castle are among the notable historical sites in the area.

The property is accessed via a upvc paneled door with glazed panels to either side, this leads into the:

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a pair of wooden five-bar gates opening onto a private driveway with ample parking, which continues to both sides of the property. On either side of the driveway are lawned areas with mature trees, shrubs and bushes.

A pathway leads through a feature stone arch to the swimming pool area with crazy-paved surround and a wooden summer/pool house. Further steps and a second stone arch lead to an additional garden area with vegetable beds, trees, shrubs and bushes, enclosed by fencing and hedging.

A pathway and steps lead to the stables and tack room. To the front there is a concrete courtyard enclosed by dwarf walls, together with a parking and turning area accessed via a separate five-bar gate. There is also a greenhouse and a boiler room housing the oil-fired central heating and domestic hot water boiler.

DIRECTIONS

Please do not use the postcode in your satnav. From the Wilton roundabout, on the edge of Ross-on-Wye, take the turning onto the A49, taking the second turning right, signposted to Sellack. Continue along this lane for approximately 1.9 miles, reaching a crossroads with a memorial on the left hand side. Turn right and continue for approximately one mile. Take the turning left, signposted to the Church, where the property can be found after approximately half a mile, going past the church and a further 150m on up the hill, on the right hand side as per our for sale board.

SERVICES

Mains water, electric. Septic tank. Oil.

AGENTS NOTE

A new oil boiler was installed April 2026
