21 Main Street, Beeford, YO25 8AY

Hugely deceptive from its rather modest façade, this is a surprisingly spacious, extended cottage property that provides a wealth of accommodation, ideally suited to many different buyers. The property is located at the heart of the popular village of Beeford, within convenient access of the local school and also other facilities towards Bridlington Road.

The accommodation on offer is versatile and includes up to 3 reception rooms, lounge, dining room and dayroom plus character kitchen and utility. The first floor provides three double bedrooms along with house bathroom.

To the rear of the property is an enclosed area of garden, this being of a good proportion and also including a large purpose-built workshop/store.

Buyers looking for something a little more characterful than a modern home are thoroughly advised to look no further as viewing of this property is unlikely to disappoint.

BEEFORD
