From the balcony, a timber door opens into the:-

HOBBY/STORAGE ROOM

An incredibly useful space set within the pitch of the roof, open timber beams with steel central beam spanning the depth of the room. Exposed ply flooring, incorporating power and light.

PRIVATE LAWNED GARDEN

Without doubt one of the finest private gardens to be found in Penryn and the surrounding area, this exceptional and beautifully established landscape provides a spectacular setting for the house. Predominantly laid to sweeping lawn and thoughtfully planted over many decades, the gardens display an extraordinary variety of mature specimen trees, shrubs and flowering borders, creating a haven for keen gardeners and wildlife alike. Agapanthus, roses, hydrangeas, rhododendrons, silver birch, ferns and holly are just a selection of the extensive planting, combining to provide year-round colour, texture and seasonal interest. Perfectly positioned to enjoy the sunshine throughout the day, the garden offers an overwhelming sense of tranquillity and complete privacy, with paved terraces, secluded seating areas, a greenhouse, roofed pergola draped in climbing plants and useful ancillary outbuildings adjoining the utility/workshop. An alternative approach by foot from Old Well Road showcases impressive high stone boundary walls and a traditional wrought iron entrance gate hinting at the property's rich history, creating a wonderfully elegant arrival that reinforces the timeless appeal of this truly remarkable garden.
