A well-presented and thoughtfully modernised and extended three-bedroom detached Fosters-built bungalow occupying a generous plot within a well-regarded residential area of Balderton, conveniently positioned for local amenities, schools and transport links.

The property has been thoughtfully modernised and extended and benefits from gas-fired central heating and UPVC double glazed windows throughout. The extension provides additional versatile accommodation including a useful utility room and garden room, which could equally serve as a third bedroom if required.

The accommodation is entered via an entrance hall which provides access to a spacious lounge, the kitchen is fitted with a range of attractive modern shaker-style units complemented by work surfaces and incorporates a range of appliances including an oven, hob and fridge. There is a useful wc with modern white wc and wash hand basin, just off the kitchen.

There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms together with a bathroom fitted with a modern white suite and separate shower cubicle. The garden room provides excellent versatility and is currently suitable for use as a third bedroom, home office or additional reception room, with French doors opening directly onto the rear garden. A separate utility room provides valuable storage and laundry facilities.

Outside, the bungalow occupies a good-sized plot with spacious patio terraces providing excellent areas for outdoor dining and entertaining. The rear garden enjoys a pleasant degree of privacy and offers ample space for keen gardeners and family enjoyment alike.

To the front of the property is a low-maintenance gravelled garden together with concrete pathways leading to the entrance door. A driveway provides off-road parking for up to three vehicles and gives access to the single garage.

Balderton is one of Newark's most popular and well-served residential areas, situated immediately to the south of the town centre. The village offers an excellent range of day-to-day amenities including local shops, convenience stores, takeaways, healthcare facilities and supermarkets, including Sainsbury's and Aldi.

The area is particularly popular with families, benefiting from two well-regarded primary schools and easy access to secondary schooling in Newark. Residents also enjoy a strong sense of community, supported by a range of local organisations, sports facilities and three public houses which serve as popular social and dining venues.

Newark town centre lies approximately two miles away and offers a comprehensive range of shopping, leisure and cultural amenities. Newark North Gate railway station provides direct services to London King's Cross in around 75 minutes, whilst the A1 and A46 are both readily accessible, making Balderton an excellent location for commuters.

This attractive detached bungalow offers spacious and flexible accommodation in a convenient and highly regarded residential location and is offered with the benefit of no upward chain.

This detached Foster's built bungalow dates from circa 1960 and is constructed of brick elevations under a tiled roof covering with a brick built rear extension with a flat roof.
