THE PROPERTY

76 West Street is a very attractive end of terrace period building currently comprising a double-fronted commercial unit with living accommodation over, on the western edge of Bridport town centre. The property is believed to date back to the 18th century being predominantly of brick construction with timber windows under slate roofs. It is listed grade 2, of architectural or historic importance.

The property offers excellent potential for change of use and conversion into a private home with wide ranging options including possibly the creation of a ground floor annexe / self contained apartment, subject to the usual planning consents. See heading Outside regarding the pedestrian right of way to the rear .

POTENTIAL ACCOMMODATION

Ground floor - Living room, kitchen/dining room, utility, cloakroom, store

First floor - 2 Bedrooms, potential en-suite shower room

Second floor - 2 Further bedrooms, bathroom/shower room

OUTSIDE

No off-road parking although adjoining car park and a number of Council car parks very nearby (annual permits available).

Small rear south-facing courtyard.

The property has the benefit of pedestrian right of way to the rear courtyard (access between 68-70 West Street) and could be used in conjunction with a potential annex.

SITUATION

The property occupies a corner position at the end of West Street. Bridport is a thriving and historic market town. Extensive street markets are held twice weekly and the town has an excellent range of shopping, business, recreational and social amenities. The popular coastal harbour resort of West Bay is only a few miles to the south on the stunning Jurassic Coast.
