

Grantham, Lincolnshire, NG32

Price as listed

This brand new, modern-furnished Foundry Bronze (40'x20') luxury park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow style property. The home features a spacious lounge and dining area, leading through to a separate kitchen. There are two large double bedrooms, the main bedroom with an en-suite shower room, the other with built-in storage. The home also features a main bathroom with a shower over the bath, and built-in storage in the entry way.

This residential park offers rural peace and quiet and is situated only 4 miles from the delightful market town of Grantham. The park is built on an open-plan level site, near the village of Allington, which has a post office and public house only a short walk away. Grantham offers a wide range of shops, fine country houses, gardens open to the public, a museum, and an event centre. The A1 junction is just 2 miles away and there is a direct rail link to London and the North from Grantham station.
