Melrose Flat 1, 151 Park Road

Buxton, SK17 6SW

Tenure Leasehold - Share of Freehold Council Tax Band D

This spacious ground-floor apartment is situated in the highly desirable Park Road area of Buxton.

Built in 1884, 'Melrose' was once the residence of Vera Brittain, renowned for her acclaimed First World War memoir, Testament of Youth, where she lived from 1907 to 1915. Later on the house was converted into just three spacious apartments. Conveniently located near Buxton's picturesque cricket ground and just a 10-minute walk from the historic town centre.

Tastefully decorated and featuring many original features, the property includes a welcoming hall, a cozy lounge, a dining room, three bedrooms with an en-suite to the the principle bedroom, further bathroom, and a kitchen/breakfast room. Additional highlights include full gas central heating and mostly double-glazed windows.

Residents can enjoy access to the beautifully maintained communal gardens and terraces along with allocated garage parking.

Directions
