Positioned on one of York's most sought after avenues, a short stroll from the city centre and the scenic views of the River Ouse, is this impressive two bedroom ground floor apartment. Offered on an unfurnished basis the property briefly comprises: Communal entrance, generous hallway which features a high level original window allowing natural light to flood through. At the end of the hall is the grand reception room which boasts a large bay window overlooking the communal garden. Off this is the second bedroom and recently renovated kitchen with oven, hob, integrated dishwasher, space for a fridge freezer and plumbing for washing machine. To the rear of the property is a large master bedroom which features a large bay window and a walk in wardrobe. The internal accommodation is finished by the three piece shower room and under stairs cupboard. Externally is allocated parking, an outbuilding for storage and a communal garden.
