- Detached two-bedroom bungalow on a generous corner plot
- Not directly overlooked
- Spacious living room with feature fireplace
- Now in need of modernisation — ideal project to personalise
- Potential to extend/reconfigure, subject to planning and building regs

DESCRIPTION

Occupying a desirable corner plot in a well-regarded residential cul-de-sac, 10 Breidden Close presents a rare chance to acquire a detached bungalow with excellent potential in one of Oswestry’s most convenient addresses. The accommodation currently provides a welcoming reception room with feature fireplace, a kitchen with side access, two well-proportioned bedrooms, and a family bathroom. To the rear, a conservatory opens to a sun terrace, extending the living space and creating a pleasant spot to enjoy the gardens. While the property would now benefit from a programme of updating and general modernisation, the layout is practical and offers scope for a buyer to re-style to taste.

OUTSIDE

Outside, the bungalow is approached via a driveway leading to a single garage, providing useful parking and storage. The gardens wrap around the property, mainly laid to lawn and richly stocked with established shrubs, fruit trees and hedging, interspersed with paved seating areas—a lovely setting that enjoys a good degree of privacy and is not directly overlooked. The corner position and mature planting add to the sense of space and seclusion while leaving plenty of scope for further landscaping or re-design.
