4 Bedroom House - Detached located in Near Loughborough

Nestled in the charming village of Osgathorpe, this exquisite four-bedroom, detached home offers a perfect blend of luxury and comfort.

As you enter the property, you are greeted by a spacious hallway, leading to an open-plan kitchen and family room, designed for modern living and entertaining. The kitchen is the heart of the home, boasting a central island, ample cupboard space, a range oven, dishwasher, microwave and wine fridge along with a freestanding fridge freezer. The family area has French doors with access to the patio and rear garden. Adjacent to this space is a separate lounge, complete with a log burner and French doors that lead out to the garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. Additionally, the property features a snug and a dedicated office, perfect for remote work or quiet relaxation.

The home comprises four generously sized double bedrooms, including a large master suite that features a delightful Juliette balcony and an ensuite bathroom with separate bath and shower. Three of the bedrooms have large wardrobes and the spacious family bathroom has a feature bath and separate shower.

Further enhancing the appeal of this property is the ground floor underfloor heating, which provides warmth and comfort. The exterior boasts a large driveway that accommodates multiple vehicles, along with a double garage
