ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A well-presented and extended garden flat that's conveniently situated along a sought-after side road in west Chelsea.

There are numerous shops, bars, restaurants, and traditional pubs situated along Old Brompton Road and Earls Court Road nearby. Additionally, the historic royal Brompton Park and Cemetery is conveniently situated very close by providing an open green space in which to walk and relax.

FURTHER DETAILS

The property comprises two double bedrooms and two bathrooms and boasts a lovely bright kitchen-diner (with skylight) providing access to the rear patio via bi-fold doors. There is a separate south-west facing front reception room, with feature fireplace and large bay-window.

Wharfedale Street is a quiet side road in west Chelsea and forms part of the Bolton's Conservation Area, designated as such in 2000 given its special architectural significance. The street is made up of only a small number of charming Victorian houses constructed during the late 1800s and is connected to Coleherne Road and Coleherne Mews.
