4 Bedroom House - Detached located in Baldock

Offered chain free welcome to "The Manse," a charming Victorian detached house, a hidden gem discreetly located behind Whitehorse Street. This delightful property, built in 1858, boasts a generous living space of 1,434 square feet, making it an ideal family home or a peaceful haven for a couple with visitors.

"The Manse" retains many original features that add character and charm to the home. The exterior is equally appealing, with a traditional façade that reflects the rich history of the property and the surrounding area.

Situated centrally in its own secluded wraparound gardens, particularly benefitting from an enchanting southerly garden being the epitome of country cottage style and a true reflection of the pride, effort and horticultural knowledge the owners utilised during their residence.

As you enter, you will be greeted by three spacious reception rooms, each offering a unique atmosphere for relaxation and entertainment. These versatile spaces can be tailored to suit your lifestyle, whether you envisage a cosy sitting room, a formal dining area, a vibrant playroom for the children or a home study/craft room.

Situated in Baldock, you will enjoy the benefits of a friendly community, with local amenities, schools, and parks just a short distance away. The town is well-connected, making it easy to access nearby towns and cities.

In summary, "The Manse" is a splendid Victorian home that combines historical charm with modern living. With its spacious reception rooms, four bedrooms, and prime location, this property is perfect for those seeking a comfortable and stylish home.

Local Area

This property is an historical place of interest positioned in a conservation area in the historic market town of Baldock which has a population of around 10,000 and is situated within the district council area of North Hertfordshire and the county of Hertfordshire.

Easy access to A1/M1, fast trains into London Kings Cross & St Pancras from Baldock railway station circa 40-45mins and trains direct to Cambridge circa 20-25 mins.

Even though it is the smallest town in North Herts district, it has many architecturally significant buildings with more listed buildings than any of the others in the district. In fact, it is among only five towns in the whole of Hertfordshire listed by the Council for British Archaeology as being of national importance. Baldock almost runs into the larger Letchworth Garden City, the two lying each side of the A1 motorway.

With its impressive architectural heritage, true to its history as a coaching town and centre of the malting industry, it is still very popular with socialites and party goers. At the same time, it has its own vibrant community life and ancient and attractive shopping environment, boasting excellent restaurants, pubs, bakery and butchers and especially excellent schools.
