SITUATION

Set in a beautiful rural location within the East Devon National Landscape (formerly AONB), yet just moments from the vibrant market town of Honiton. The town offers an excellent range of shops and services, primary and secondary schools, a leisure centre, and a mainline railway station with links to Exeter and London Waterloo.

DESCRIPTION

A superb three/four-bedroom stone barn conversion enjoying wonderful rural views, originally converted just over 30 years ago. The property combines character features with countryside tranquility and offers an adaptable layout arranged partly on split levels and over two floors.

The lower ground floor includes a farmhouse-style kitchen, a sitting room with wood burner, a ground floor bedroom/dining room, and a study. From the kitchen, a half-stair leads to a shower room and a generous double bedroom with its own external door. The first floor provides two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

OUTSIDE

The property benefits from parking for several vehicles. Steps lead to a pedestrian gate giving access to the rear garden, while a gravel pathway winds to the front, where a private gravel terrace and a small lawn are framed by mature trees and shrubs.

To the rear, the substantial garden is mainly laid to lawn, complemented by established planting, a paved patio area, and a covered canopy—perfect for outdoor entertaining.

OUTBUILDINGS

Two good-sized timber-framed sheds provide excellent storage and versatility.

SERVICES

Mains electricity with PV panels. Private water supply and septic tank drainage. Oil-fired central heating. Standard broadband available; Starlink recommended. Mobile signal variable outside (Ofcom).
