The substantial plot will undoubtedly appeal to a wide range of purchasers, from those seeking a spacious retirement property through to families, developers or buyers looking to create their forever home in an established village setting. The beautifully proportioned rear garden provides endless possibilities for landscaping, home offices, garden rooms or extensions, whilst retaining an exceptional amount of outdoor space. Occupying a prime position within the heart of the National Forest and offering excellent access to the A444, M42 and surrounding market towns, opportunities such as this are increasingly difficult to find. Viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the size of the plot, the potential on offer and the enviable setting.
