PROPERTY SUMMARY

A stunning two-bedroom split-level raised ground floor period conversion, offering approximately 1,016 sq ft of beautifully presented accommodation, set within an imposing double-fronted Victorian building with a cellar and private garden, in one of Bowes Park's most sought-after locations.

Beautifully blending period charm with modern practicality, this light and spacious home offers stylish interiors and well-proportioned accommodation. The property benefits from a private garden and useful cellar storage, whilst retaining attractive period features including high ceilings and a charming fireplace.

Notable features include an impressive reception room with a front-aspect bay window, a bespoke kitchen with fitted units, a separate dining room, a modern family bathroom, and bright, balanced living space.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to a spacious reception room with feature fireplace. The separate kitchen is fitted with wall and base units with complementary work surfaces. The dining room provides an excellent setting for dining.

There are two well-proportioned bedrooms, both offering comfortable and versatile living space.

The property further benefits from a useful cellar, ideal for storage, with access from both the front of the building and the interior of the flat.

Externally, the delightful private garden provides a peaceful retreat, whilst enjoying attractive views over the New River at the rear.

Ideally positioned, the property is within easy walking distance of Bowes Park railway station, providing direct services to Moorgate, and Bounds Green Underground station (Piccadilly Line, Zone 3), offering excellent transport connections. Myddleton Road is also nearby, offering independent cafés, restaurants, shops and local amenities. Excellent schools and nearby green spaces further enhance the appeal of this highly desirable location.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate this exceptional home.
