The Location

Drayton St Leonard is a traditional village with many old and historical houses, a church, and village hall which offers a wide-ranging program of social activities, including regular pop-up pub nights and family-friendly fun events. It is well placed for access to both Oxford and the Thames Valley as well as the M40 (Junction 7, 6 miles) for London and Birmingham. The market town of Wallingford provides comprehensive day to day amenities and a range of shops. The many excellent private schools in both Oxford and Abingdon are easily reached and the village falls within the catchment area for St Birinus C of E primary school in Dorchester on Thames, with secondary schooling in Abingdon.
