The internal accommodation comprises: an entrance porch providing access into a generous ground floor room positioned to the left, which offers flexibility for use as a bedroom or an additional reception space. This part of the extension further benefits from a shower room and a spacious utility room, enhanced by Velux windows and providing a practical link through to the original part of the property.

Beyond the utility room is an excellent open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area, forming the main hub of the home. This bright and welcoming space features a fireplace and French doors opening out to the garden. The kitchen itself is well proportioned and fitted with a ceramic sink and mixer tap, a range of integrated appliances, space for a fridge/freezer, and a useful storage cupboard retaining original doors. The décor throughout the property has been thoughtfully considered and is well maintained.

Stairs lead up to the first floor, where there are two generously sized bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys lovely open views across the valley, with the removal of the chimney breast creating a particularly spacious and impressive room. The second bedroom benefits from large built-in wardrobes. Both bedrooms are served by a family bathroom fitted with a bath and an overhead shower.

Externally, the property occupies an enviable position within the village and enjoys uninterrupted countryside views. The garden is of a generous size and incorporates a summer house and a bin store, while on-street parking is available to the front of the property.
