THE PROPERTY

Tucked well away from the road, the barn was sympathetically converted to create light and spacious accommodation in the late 1990s. Mill Barn benefits from a number of period features including exposed oak beams and a large stone open fireplace.

The three reception rooms are generously proportioned with the dining hall and open study area having oak flooring. The snug room has a feature fireplace with a wood-burning stove and French doors leading to a private courtyard.

The vendors have added an extension to create a superb kitchen/sitting/dining room. The kitchen has an electric Aga with a gas hob, a separate breakfast area and access to the utility room and downstairs WC. The kitchen has attractive views of the manicured landscaped gardens.

Upstairs, there is an attractive and spacious landing providing access to the four double bedrooms. These include a principal bedroom with an en suite shower room and views over the gardens. There is a guest bedroom with an en suite shower room, family bathroom and two further bedrooms.

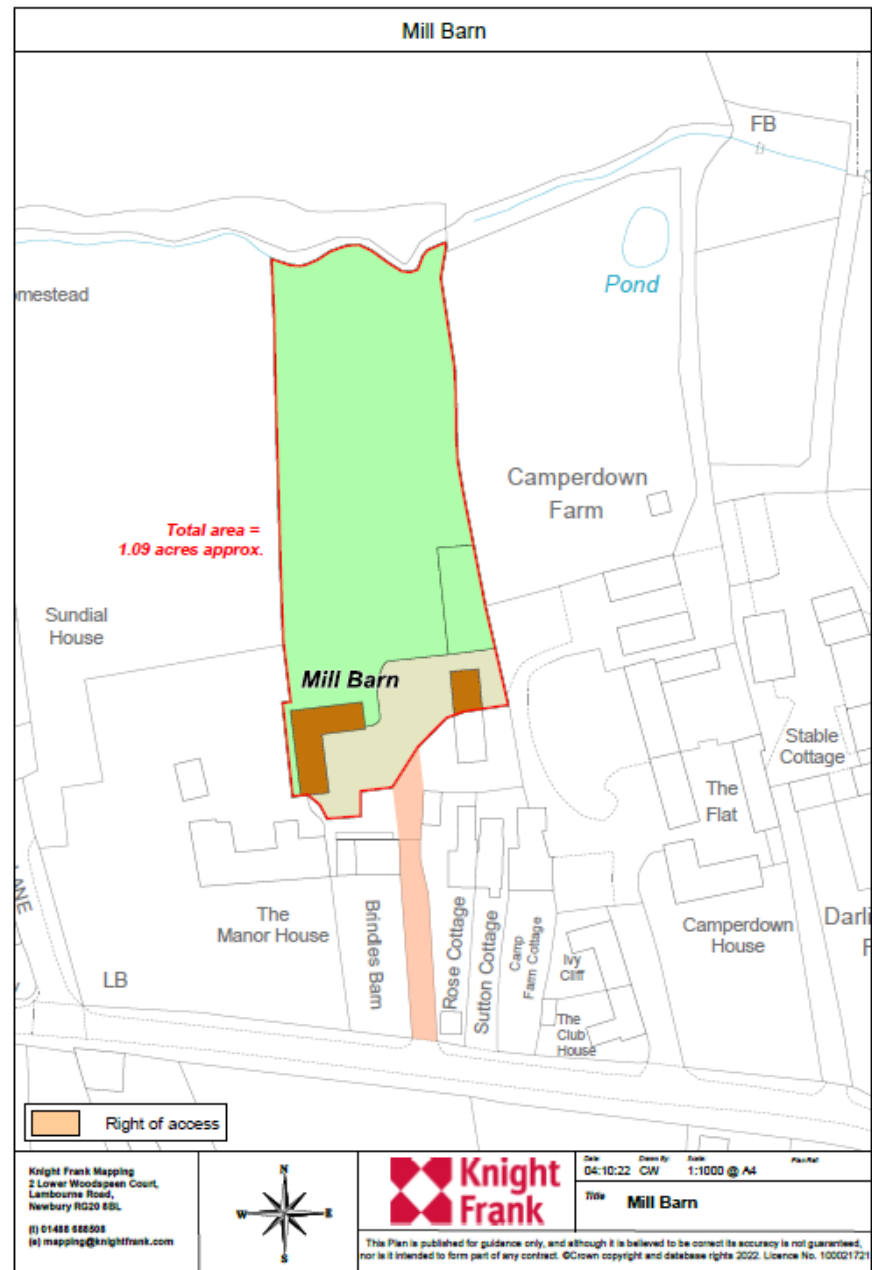

The annexe accommodation is situated above the double garage and office. This spacious studio can provide ancillary or guest accommodation or a workspace and is accessed via an external staircase, however, this could be connected via an extension to the office and kitchen below (Subject to planning permission).

To the front of the property is a large gravel drive, to the side of which is a brick-built double garage and office.

The open plan kitchen/dining room and drawing room flow seamlessly to the rear garden, with a Cotswold stone chip terrace with a water feature, rear and fountain, bordered by a hornbeam hedge and clipped box balls. A flat lawn area comprises well-stocked, colour-themed herbaceous borders with roses enclosed by mature topiary yew hedges. The formal gardens lead onto a mature avenue of cherry blossoms with magnificent white blossoms in the spring. There is an orchard area approaching one-acre with mature apple, plum, pear and damson trees and an expanse of flat lawn. The vendors have created a woodland casual dining area with a fire pit and barbeque and an enclosed vegetable garden with raised beds and a greenhouse.
