Location

Denham is a rural village close to the Norfolk/Suffolk border. The neighbouring Parish of Hoxne has a primary school, village store/post office and popular public house, The Swan. The well served village of Stradbroke is approximately 4 miles to the east where there is a primary school and High School, together with further public houses, shops and a swimming pool/gym. There are further amenities in the nearby town of Eye which is also approximately 4 miles away and this also has a respected high school, Hartismere High School, and a number of shops and businesses. It is also only a short drive to the excellent independent schools of Framlingham College and Brandeston Hall. The larger town of Diss is just over 7 miles from the property and offers further shopping and leisure facilities including three supermarkets and a golf course. There is also a mainline station with frequent services to Norwich, Ipswich and London's Liverpool Street Station. The Suffolk Heritage Coast including Aldeburgh and Southwold is approximately 40 minutes away.

Description

Willow Cottage is a charming and elegantly presented detached period cottage with rendered elevations under a tiled roof and later extensions. It comprises three reception rooms, a sitting room, drawing room and garden room, along with a study, kitchen/breakfast room with electric two-oven Aga, utility room and cloakroom on the ground floor. On the first floor is a master bedroom with en-suite shower room, two double bedrooms with an additional walk-through bedroom/dressing room, and a large family bathroom with enclosed shower and freestanding bath. Outside, the cottage sits in immaculate gardens with farmland views to the side and a detached double garage. The property is fully double glazed and benefits from modern electric heating with a woodburning stove.

Entering the property from the front through a wooden arched door, you are welcomed into an entrance porch with windows to the side and an opening through to the entrance hall. The entrance hall provides access to both the drawing room and the sitting room. The drawing room, currently used as an office, features a brick chimney with a recessed wood-burning stove. A door from here leads into the study, which benefits from built-in shelving with cupboards below, along with French doors opening out to the vegetable garden. The sitting room also features a red brick chimney breast with a recessed wood-burning stove, part-panelled walls with bevelled corners, tiled flooring, wall-mounted lighting, and recessed ceiling lights. Glazed concertina casement doors open through to the garden room. The garden room makes a great addition to the property and is used as a second sitting room. It enjoys a vaulted ceiling with windows to the side, large picture windows to the rear, French doors opening onto the garden, and tiled flooring. From the sitting room, a door leads into the kitchen/breakfast room, a dual-aspect space with windows to the rear and side. The room comprises a hand-built farmhouse kitchen featuring an electric two-oven Aga set within a red brick chimney breast, along with a matching range of fitted wall and base units topped with granite work surfaces. There is a Butler sink with an ornate mixer tap and water filter tap, an integrated dishwasher, space for additional appliances, and recessed lighting. French doors open onto the garden, and stairs rise to the first-floor landing. A part-glazed door leads into the utility room, which has a window to the rear and is fitted with a range of hand-built wall and base units with granite work surfaces, incorporating a Butler sink with a mixer tap. Additional features include a water softener, washing machine, built-in larder cupboards, recessed lighting, and a walk-in cupboard. A door leads through to the cloakroom, which has a rear aspect window with obscured glazing, a wall-hung basin with mixer tap and mirror above, a concealed cistern WC, and recessed lighting.

From the kitchen, stairs rise to the first-floor landing, where there are doors leading to the bedrooms and the family bathroom, along with a Velux window to the side. Bedroom one is a double room with windows to the side overlooking the farmland and garden. It benefits from a built-in wardrobe, concealed shelving, an electric panel heater, and a door leading to the en-suite shower room. The en-suite features a Velux window to the side, a built-in tiled shower cubicle with a mains-fed shower, a concealed cistern WC, extractor fan, wall-hung basin with mixer tap, a backlit heated mirror, and a corner unit providing additional storage. From the landing, a step leads down to an inner landing with a wall-mounted electric radiator and a door to the airing cupboard, which houses the water cylinder and slatted shelving. Bedroom two is a double room with windows to the front. A door leads through to the dressing room/occasional bedroom four, which has windows to the side and rear. This versatile space could be used as a bedroom, dressing room, or cot room and benefits from a built-in wardrobe and a shelved cupboard. It is currently used as a dressing room. Bedroom three is a further double bedroom with windows to the front, recessed lighting, and built-in wardrobes with a hanging rail and lighting. The family bathroom features a window to the rear and access to the loft via a hatch. The suite comprises a walk-in double shower cubicle with tiled surround, a freestanding bath with mixer tap, and a wall-hung wash basin with mixer tap and storage drawer beneath. Additional features include a backlit heated mirror, a concealed cistern WC with a cupboard above and shelving, tiled flooring, and a heated towel radiator.

Outside

The property is approached via a shared driveway, which provides access to the double garage. A Suffolk white brick pathway leads through a gate and across the formal gardens, featuring box hedging and lavender beds, to the entrance of the property.

A gravel pathway continues to the side of the house, where there are well-stocked and established borders planted with an eclectic mix of flowers and shrubs. A patio with a covered veranda adjoins the property, with French doors leading from the garden room. The garden enjoys views over surrounding agricultural land, and double gates to the rear provide access to the headlands of the field.

To the rear, there is a further seating area and a pathway leading to the vegetable garden, which has been thoughtfully designed and maintained. It includes a greenhouse, potting shed, and a composting area beyond. In addition, there is a timber-clad storage shed and gated side access leading back to the front of the property.
