

Hooby Lane, Stretton

£150,000

Rare opportunity to purchase approximately 18 acres of mature broad leaf woodland to include some ancient oaks of note, believed to be 400+ years old. The woodland has been well managed with recent clearing of any ash dieback and replacement planting. With two separate accesses both with areas of hard standing, plus internal hardcore roading, this could be a great opportunity to establish an amenity such as camping glamping with water and electric on neighbouring land. A licence may be available for five Shepard huts if applied for via the [national glamping club - CHECK] informal offers to be received before Friday 27th February if not sold prior. Viewing strictly by contact with the agent first as security is in place.
