OUTSIDE

The subject dwelling remains unique in position and scale offering a lifestyle opportunity for a range of purchaser profiles, especially applicants with equestrian interest.

Externally, the farmhouse and annexe enjoys a self-contained plot with dedicated outbuilding with full power and lighting, laid to lawn gardens, brick sett pathway and patio extending from the immediate building footprint, close boarded fencing to perimeter boundary, offering both character and charm, being accessed via wrought iron access gates.

The adjacent parcel of land benefits from a 1/3 of an acre as an all weather surface lunging/ riding area, with potential to be converted to an equestrian arena, with stables and tack room, being fully fenced and hard landscaped, offering a wealth of potential. A grass walkway provides access to an extensive two acre block of paddocks split into three separate sections. Given the scale and open field views it really does have to be seen to be fully appreciated and acknowledged. A water point also exists to the paddocks.

The plot in its entirety provides an open outlook over the immediate surrounding countryside and given the flexibility on offer comes recommended for further viewing via the sole selling agent Staniford Grays.
